A BILL

To amend the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to prohibit mandatory pre-dispute arbitration agreements, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Investor Choice Act
5 of 2013”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

1           (1) Investor confidence in fair and equitable re-
2           course is essential to the health and stability of the 3           securities markets and to the participation of retail
4           investors in such markets.

5           (2) Brokers, dealers, and investment advisers
6           hold powerful advantages over investors, and manda-
7           tory arbitration clauses, including contracts that 8           force investors to submit claims to arbitration or to 9           waive their right to participate in class actions, le-
10          verage these advantages to severely restrict the abil-
11          ity of defrauded investors to seek redress.

12          (3) Investors should be free to choose arbitra-
13          tion to resolve disputes if they judge that arbitration
14          truly offers them the best opportunity to efficiently
15          and fairly settle disputes, and investors should also 16          be free to pursue remedies in court, should they view
17          that option as superior to arbitration.
